Takjil Hunt: Taste Various Indonesian's Takjil!

 Fifty Seven Promenade

Fifty Seven Promenade held an iftar together with all tenants by providing Indonesian takjil. The event took place at the Private Dining & BBQ Area on Level 23A and started at 6:00 pm, in accordance with iftar time on that day. Various dishes were served, such as es doger, steamed sponge cake, banana compote, various types of fried foods, and various cakes.

Besides tenants, Fifty Seven Promenade employees also enlivened this event. Iftar together is an opportunity for tenants and employees to talk to each other and strengthen family relationships.

Through this positive event, harmonious relationships can be maintained and developed. By renting an apartment at Fifty Seven Promenade, you can experience togetherness with all tenants, such as this breakfasting event.

What are you waiting for? Join us and experience the pleasure of living at Fifty Seven Promenade!
