57Promenade: Designed for Modern Living

In a fast moving city like Jakarta, a well connected and comfortable place to live elevates everyday routines feel more effortless.

For today's modern professionals, comfort is no longer only about space, it's about convenience, balance, and the freedom to move effortlessly between work, lifestyle, and personal time. A shorter commute, mornings that feel calmer, and evenings that feel more intentional after long days in the city.

At 57Promenade, urban living is designed to complement the rhythm of modern city life. Surrounded by Jakarta's prominent business and lifestyle districts, the residence offers an elevated living experience where everything seamlessly connected, while still giving you a sense of privacy and ease above the energy of the city below.

From early mornings before meetings to quiet evenings overlooking the skyline, every detail is thoughtfully shaped around a more refined everyday lifestyle. Whether it's enjoying coffee before the day begins, hosting intimate dinners at home, or simply returning to a space that feels calm and sophisticated, daily routines become moments worth enjoying.

More than a residence, 57Promenade reflects a lifestyle centered around modern luxury, everyday comfort, and effortless city living, created for those who value not only where they are going, but how they choose to live along the way.

Lease your dream unit now at 57Promenade and experience elevated city living in the heart of Jakarta.
